Franchisee Success Stories

We did take our time to find a franchise who we felt comfortable to start our new life chapter. After much consideration, we made the decision to join eMaids Inc. We would not hesitate to recommend any individual that has the passion to succeed to partner with eMaids! Miriam and her team will support you all the way. It has been a fun, challenging and rewarding journey so far. We are on our way to great success!

Luis & Cheryl

When I decided to become my own boss, I looked into franchises. My priority was to grow quickly & get the support I needed. I contacted several, but their fees were high and their territories small and I felt like I was talking to robots. When I contacted eMaids, I was surprised by their low fees and their large territories. For me, above all else, was the fact that I already felt supported. Today, my business is thriving and continues to grow, because I always have the support I need. We have several meetings a month, webinars & so much more. You could say that eMaids is a nationwide company, but it's also a family.

Precilla Bachelili

I am an entrepreneur, for me owning my own business meant more family time, financial freedom and a legacy to leave behind for your loved ones. I did my research and choosing to go with eMaids was an easy choice, no one came close to what they offer. You get a generous sized territory, minimum startup cost and a support system that is unheard of! Miriam and her team are available 24-7, no matter how big or small your needs are.

I have over 20 years of sales experience and I have been flawed by her passion for her brand and her commitment to see you succeed. I would highly recommend this "family to any". Their vested interest in your success is what makes eMaids a brand and a family. It's their dedication and passion to help you reach your goals, to be with you every step of the way. You always get a sense of "we are a team" and we can do this together with this brand. If you are looking to one day leave behind a legacy, be successful and be a part of great brand, then eMaids is the place for you!
